Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record two deeds of trust and transfers of real estate as follows:

February 23 by Charles Massaux and wife to William Kirsch, for $650, a house on alley C on the city commons.
February 1 by Lloyd Biddle and wife to P. Welty, for $6,200, the second half of lot 14 in square 14 in the Eighth ward.

Yesterday's Police Court.

In the police court yesterday morning Stove Wilcox, Jr., got $3 and costs for disorder. Another disorderly paid $2 and costs. The two men who went into Mr. McGehee's house on the Island, were fined $5 and costs each and one of them $5 beside for carrying a pistol. James Nelson, a drunk, got $1 and costs, and went to the hall. Herman Zwicker, charged with selling liquor on Sunday, was dismissed.

A Boy Seriously Hurt.

Shortly after noon yesterday Charlie Porter, a young son of Frank Porter, the grocer at the corner of South Penn and Vermont streets, was riding a horse down Penn street when the animal became frisky and threw his rider over his head. The boy landed in the street and the horse fell on him with great force. In struggling to get up the horse kicked Charlie a terrible blow in the face, cutting it badly. His mother was attracted by his cries and ran out and assisted him into the house, and a physician was summoned, who sewed up the cuts. The injuries are painful, but not dangerous. He will probably carry the scars always.

Fourth Street Methodist Revival.

The revival services at the Fourth street M. E. church are going on without any decrease of energy and power. It is now in its sixth week, and the pastor, who has conducted every service himself, is apparently as vigorous as when he started in the campaign. The net result thus far is eighty-five conversions and about sixty accessions to Dr. Riker's church. There will be an all day religious meeting held at Zane street M. E. church to-day, beginning at 6 o'clock a. m. The leaders will be changed every hour during the day.

"New York Day by Day."

The great melodrama, "New York Day by Day," with a car load of special scenery, will commence a three nights' engagement at the Grand to-night. This is a great play and is said to be better than "The Walcott of New York." The scenery is grand, and a strong New York company, headed by the charming soubrette, Miss Lottie Williams, will produce the play on a scale of grandeur seldom seen here. Tickets are now on sale at Genth's and they are going off very fast. No one should fail to see this famous play.

MR. FOREMAN WILL COME.

He Accepts the Invitation to Address the Trades Assembly.

Secretary T. V. Saulsbury has received a response to his letter to W. W. Foreman, of this county, state lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance, conveying the Trades Assembly's invitation to be present at next Sunday's meeting and address the assembly. Following is an extract from the letter, which is dated at Clinton:

"If my health permits I will be pleased to meet with your organization on the day and date mentioned in your letter."
"WILLIAM W. FOREMAN."

MR. DAVENPORT'S FUNERAL.

Many Friends Present from Wheeling. Beautiful Flowers.

The funeral of the late John R. Davenport took place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. W. C. Mooney, at Woodsfield, Ohio, yesterday afternoon. The number of persons present at the services, nearly three hundred, testified to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The floral tributes of those present and absent were many testimonials of affection and grief, many of the offerings coming from his friends in this city.

Those present from Wheeling were Mr. Frank Stanton, his partner in business; Judge Thayer Melvin, Hon. Joseph J. Woods, Nelson Noble, Prof. John M. Birch, Ben Beard, J. W. Hunter, ex-Mayor Jacob W. Grubb, Capt. Asa Booth, C. W. Franzheim and Charles F. Otto, and Dr. Williams, of Martin's Ferry, and Superintendent of Schools Daniel T. Williams, of Moundsville.

The services were conducted by the pastor of the Methodist church, and the choir of the same denomination rendered the music of the occasion in an impressive manner. The remains were interred in the family plot at the Woodsfield cemetery.

Newspapers Endorse.

"Educators are certainly the greatest benefactors of the race, and after reading Dr. Franklin Miles' popular works, cannot help declaring him to be among the most entertaining and educating authors."—New York Daily. He is not a stranger to our readers, as his advertisements appear in our columns in every issue, calling attention to the fact that his elegant work on Nervous and Heart Diseases is distributed free by our enterprising druggists, the Logan Drug Co. Trial bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine are given away, also Book of Testimonials showing that it is unequalled for Nervous Prostration, Headache, Poor Memory, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia, Hysteria, Fits, Epilepsy, &c.

GREAT BARGAINS in fine Shoes at L. V. BLOND'S.

MASON-WARWOOD.

A Prominent Martin's Ferry Lady Married to a New York Merchant.

Edward Valentino Mason, of New York city, was married to Miss Emily Warwood, of Martin's Ferry, at that place yesterday.

The wedding was quiet and informal, but exceedingly pretty. It was celebrated in the St. Paul's Episcopal church at Martin's Ferry. The church, one of the coziest in the Ohio Valley, was well filled with friends residing in Martin's Ferry, Bridgeport, Wheeling and other places, and the choir consisted of Messrs. Will Day and Will McCoy, Miss Theresa Phillips and Mrs. Flora Williams, of Wheeling, with Miss Sarah Sweeney, also of Wheeling, at the organ.

Precisely at 11 o'clock the choir began singing the wedding chorus from the opera of "Lohengrin," and Miss Warwood entered the front door, leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Henry Warwood, and marched up the aisle to the chancel, where they were met by Mr. Mason, and there the father gave the daughter away. They were confronted by Rev. Charles O'Meara, the rector of St. Paul's who performed the ceremony. The wedding, the first in the church, was after the regular English service, even to the signing of the register. The bride, a pretty brunette, was attired in a lovely traveling costume, tailor made, broad cloth, russet brown, with bonnet and gloves to match. The groom, a fine looking blonde, appeared in a morning suit. The reception was informal, on account of the death of a sister of the groom a few weeks since.

After a wedding breakfast the bride and groom left on the Pan-Handle for Brooklyn, where they will go to house-keeping at 1278 Dean street, and will be at home after March 7.

The presents were numerous, magnificent and useful. Among them was a large marble clock and ornament from the members of St. Paul's Church, and a cherry music cabinet from the choir in the First Presbyterian Church of Wheeling.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warwood, and is brilliant, highly accomplished, benevolent and self-sacrificing. She has been one of the most active workers in connection with St. Paul's church. Although engaged as organist of the First Presbyterian church in Wheeling, she yet found time to take charge of the organ in St. Paul's every Sunday. No effort for the upbuilding of the church has ever lacked her earnest, unselfish assistance. The lecture and pulpit in St. Paul's, carved by her in solid oak, are among the finest in the United States. The congregation will miss one who has done so much for them.

Never did a bride depart with more hearty and unanimous good wishes than does Mrs. Mason.

The groom is a member of the firm of August Lewis & Co., importers of straw goods, New York. He is a great church worker, is a tenor singer in St. Bartholomew's church choir, Brooklyn, and is well known in musical circles.

A BOGUS CHECK.

A Man Works the old Racket on a Clothing Dealer.

A few days ago a stranger, who gave his name as Walker, and represented himself to be a broker with an office in the Reilly block, bought a bill of goods from D. Gundling & Co. He paid with a check, the face of which was for a few dollars over the sum due, and he received the difference in cash. When the check was presented it was found to be worthless.

The police were notified, but not until yesterday did they come up with anybody who seemed to answer the description. Yesterday a well known insurance man happened to wander into the city building, on business with one of the officials, and he observed Officer Lukins looking at him carefully. Later another officer engaged him in conversation till he asked what was the matter, when the officer said nothing was. Mr. Gundling and Lukins appeared about that time, and Mr. Gundling looked at the insurance man and left. Then the officers apologized to the gentleman for having suspected him.

The case was a very funny one, for the man who was suspected is about as well known about town as any citizen. He once was the victim of a robbery, and the police force recovered for him the stolen goods.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package. DAW

The steam heating arrangements in the Reilly block are now about completed, and this building is now more than ever the finest equipped and best located office building in the city. The rooms are being taken up rapidly, and persons looking for desirable offices had better make application early, as this class of rooms are in great demand. The Press Club, Pittsburgh Salt Club company, W. C. Handlan, Esq., M. F. Giesey and Mennerlicher Society are the last parties who have secured rooms in the block.

ODDS and Ends of Lace Curtains, 2, 3, 4 and 5 of a pattern at ridiculous prices. Come early if you want any. Some grades will be closed early. STONE & THOMAS.
